

Russellville ATC Students Receive Rotary Scholarships

Russellville ATC student Rotary scholarship recipients include from left to right Nick Thomas, machine tool technology; Stephen Ferguson, electricity; Tony Miller, welding technology; Kyle Boisseau, computer aided drafting; and John Brent Reynolds, accounting and finance technology. Not pictured: Kyle Ensign, automotive technology; Kasey Livingston, health science; Naveen Mahtani, information technology; and Brittany Noe, office technology.

Each year, the Russellville Rotary Club and its community sponsors provide a $250 scholarship for an outstanding student in each program area at the Russellville Area Technology Center (ATC). To be eligible for the scholarship, a student must be nominated by his or her program instructor based on the following criteria: course grade, participation, attitude, and performance.

During a recent luncheon, Russellville Rotary Club President David Poe officially announced scholarship winners in nine program areas. The following winners and sponsors include John Brett Reynolds, accounting & finance, scholarship to Western KY University sponsored by Billy Bingham, Lewisburg Banking Company; Kyle Ensign, automotive technology, scholarship to Hopkinsville Technical College sponsored by Dale Shrull; Kyle Boisseau, drafting, scholarship to Murray State University sponsored by Danny Harris, Russellville Rotary Club; Stephen Ferguson, electricity, scholarship to Western KY University sponsored by Ricky Thurston & Randy Harris of Knight Electric Inc.; Kasey Livingston, health science, scholarship to Western KY University sponsored by Dr. Paul N. Kerr, DMD; Naveen Mahtani, information technology, scholarship to Murray State University sponsored by John Sheffield, Auburn Banking Co.; Nick Thomas, machine tool technology, scholarship to Hopkinsville Technical College sponsored by Jeff Sharp, Sharp Machining; Brittany Noe, office technology, scholarship to Western KY University sponsored by Steve Croft, Citizens National Bank; and Tony Miller, welding technology, scholarship to Western KY University sponsored by Ricky Holloway & Phil Holloway, H & H Sheet Metal Fabricators, Inc.

“It is wonderful to have the support from the community to help our kids further their education,” said Rosemary Campbell, accounting and finance technology instructor at the ATC. “This provides our students with another avenue to help further their postsecondary education endeavors.”